

eternal greatness

eternal greatness

Love the reflection you see in the mirror

Adore the person you become on each waking day

Be obsessed with the idea of being the best and most successful version of yourself

Never sweat the small talk and never let it detour you

Listen, and most of all be curious about all that sparks your interest

Never let fear subdue the Greatness that is eternally you

---

Greatness is not just a word. It's a lifestyle. Never allow yourself to be told otherwise. Hard work only pays off in the right conditions. So condition your mind before cultivating the soil that requires labour intensity to which your tree of success will grow
