Hunger's Rage

My will surpasses the hand of the law
My wrath is felt by those in my path
My heart like stone, I have no conscience
My legs as swift as the wind, I run from deeds forbidden
My needs without limits, I will do whatever it takes
My courage and bravery mistaken for stupidity
My mercy and weakness has no existence
My family and my survival is all I live for Poverty made me this way.
