My Engagement in Song & Poetry

I wrote my love a symphony
To hear the melody of my condition
So as to recite every note of every instrument
Reminiscent of a piano accompanied by her voice
A solo performance intended for the satisfaction of two

Words used without misconduct
Specifically chosen for their effect
Speechless and yet,
A thousand words exchanged from their actions
I proclaim this song as ours
Brought into existence by coupled beings
Without the use of pen and pad
Instead,
The irrationality of emotions requited inside the hearts of you and me

Our song without writing
Exists within the mind and heart
Acting as a link
A connection independent and interrelated
Our song is unmistakably a blessing
Without it I am damned
