

I like who I'm becoming

I know I like who I'm becoming

I am hardest on myself (aside from those I love) and with that comes high demand and high expectations. Whatever bar you set for yourself, it is of paramount importance that you surpass this standard, not just reach it because continuous improvement is one of the reasons we are here. There is more to life than what the world offers but for the time that we are here it is key that we embrace every challenge, and with open arms accept every lesson.

The person I am today is one of continuous ascension from the old... Hence I say,
"I know I like who I'm becoming"
