

have you ever?

Have You Ever?

Have you ever walked into a room lit by a thousand candles
Welcomed with a path of rose pedals
Aroused by the scent of Jasmine and citrus
With instructions written on a page of countless kisses
Ushered into a room dressed in white and dim illumination
With your thirst quenched by a mouthful of bubbles
While you wait to be served, hand and foot
Have you ever been handled by a God
Have you ever imagined you with me?
