Peace of Mind is Priceless

If you are going to wake up at 05:00 each morning to fulfill the day's tasks, then make sure the reasons for this bring you peace of mind. With all the turmoil and stress that befalls us at every turn, it is key that the dreams, visions and most mundane of momentary thoughts bring us “Peace of Mind”.

The Universe in its entirety with everything in it (including us) is at an unending state of vibrations. Vibrating out of tune pushes away the very thing you wish to attract. The solution for this is as simple as maintaining a constant state of peace.

This in itself is what brings forth all wants and desires we all yern for on the daily. And by that regard, makes this simple act PRICELESS.
