

May we always have enough

May we always have enough

Cheers to my people fighting against the tide, trying to make a living out of survival.

It was never going to be easy but sometimes being alive is a blessing in itself.

Stay hungry for success and always strive to be rich in happiness, love, courage, ambition and pocket.

Life is short and things go wrong, may we always have enough.
