

Hush

Hush

Don't say a word
I don't want to hear you lie
Lying here next to you
The words escape me
Don't let them find you

Is it not enough that you had me
Is it not enough that you have me
Is it not enough that you will forever claim me

Where do we go from here
Where do we find the solitude that has had itself hidden
Where do we rekindle the fire once lost
Where do we find peace

All is possible in the miracle of belief
All is present in the gift of now
All prevails in the stillness of a quiet heart
