

READY AT THE READY

AT THE READY

There is no time for mercy
In the face of non-existence
There is no time for compassion of the lessor

There is no time for fear
When the admittance of failure becomes an inability
Leaving behind bravado

There will be no time to look back
For only what is ahead of you matters
Your attention at its fullest
Beguiled and taunted by the sweet serenade of victory

When odds are against you
Survival instincts engaged
Power and capability at the ready
There will be no time for incertitude
