

the Marriage of Memory &
Music

MMM

Some songs go on repeat
Others can't be heard a second longer

There are those that become a beacon of hope
While the rest do nothing more than keep Misery Company

It could be the lyrical wordplay
It might be the sweet serenade

Whichever way you look at it
It is the memories, like a ghost in the closet, that keep the emotions alive
